FUNDING

This program is offered to PAAM ballet students free of charge. We are currently $37,000 short of our fund raising needs for programs running September 2016 - May 2017. In order to continue to offer guest artists at low or no cost, greater participation and contributions through our PAAM Endowment Fund are needed. Any amount will help! Contributions accepted via your Studio Pulse Account or Email Annie. If you are unable to contribute, we also appreciate parental support raising funds and spreading the word about our Endowment.
